

A Fall Exploration of the Gospel According to Mark

Beginning August 30 and continuing on each Sunday Morning 9:45 to 10:45 through the remaining Sundays of Pentecost, St John's will offer a program inviting Bible study with the book of Mark. Deacon Margaret Jennings Todd will lead the class. The Bible Study will be structured around reading, discussing and learning about Jesus through Mark's version of the Gospel.

	Date	Text	Synopsis of Content of Material
1	August 30		Welcome Back Sunday Breakfast
2	September 6	Mark 1:1- 3:6	The Good News of Jesus
3	September 13	Mark 3:7 – 4:34	Following Jesus in the Kingdom of God
4	September 20	Mark 4:35-5:43	Trading Fear for Faith
5	September 27	Mark 6:1-56	Opposition to Jesus Mounts Jesus Shows Amazing Compassion
6	October 4	Mark 7:1-9:1	Jesus' Interpretation of Judaism
7	October 11	Mark 9:2 -50	The Transfiguration
8	October 18	Mark 10:1-52	Jesus Parables on Controversial Issues
9	October 25	Mark 11:1- 12-44	Jesus in Jerusalem The Greatest Commandment
10	November 1	Mark 13:1-37	Signs of the End
11	November 8	Mark 14: 1-25	Jesus' Anointing and the Last Supper
12	November 15	Mark 14:26-15:39	Jesus Forsaken and Rejected
13	November 22	Mark 15:40-16:20	Jesus' Victory Over Death